THE ORDER OF CALL FOR REGISTRANTS

Master Key Numbers Are Out

The master key numbers affecting the order of call of men registered were given out in Boston on Monday night.

They had not reached New Hampshire up to this noon.

The Herald has prepared the following as the order of call to the men named below. These men may be placed in one of the five classes, which of course will affect their induction in to service.

In further explanation is the following from one in authority:

The serial number is the identifying number and follows the registrant throughout his record as equivalent to his name.

The order number determines the order of availability for service assuming every registrant were actually to be called for service. In the administration of the selective service law, the order numbers, following the classification of the men, become segregated into groups without reference to numerical sequence; but in whatever group a registrant finds himself his order of liability in that group is determined by the relation of his order number to the other order numbers in that group.

For example, assume the order numbers from 1 to 10 to be evenly divided between class one and class four: the numbers 2, 6, 8, 9, 10 being in class one and the numbers 1, 3, 4, 5, 7 in class four. In such case of the men in class one, he would be called first whose order number was lowest, in that group, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and so on.

When class four is reached the same rule applies and the first man liable in that group would be the one with the order number 1 and the last the one holding the number 10.

Until a man is classified, neither number has any significance.

- 1—322, John William Lamprey, East Kingston.
- 2—1027, Clarence Dennett Markston, North Hampton.
- 3—1097, Charles DeLochenant, Avery, 88 Columbus St., Portsmouth.
- 4—2781, Kenneth O'Brien, Elwyn road, Portsmouth.
- 5—423, William Alexander Blake, Jr., Kingston.
- 6—904, Frank Edward Willey, Newmarket.

SIR ERIC GEDDES PRAISES U. S. NAVY

Washington, Oct. 8.—An admiralty board headed by Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the British Admiralty, arrived Monday in Washington as guests of the Navy Department. The party came in response to an invitation extended by Sec. Daniels to Sir Eric some time ago and in part to fulfill the visit to England of Assistant Secretary Roosevelt of the Navy Department.

"For the last 18 months," said Sir Eric in an interview, "we on our side have had the opportunity of seeing your navy at work and I am voicing the opinion not only of the Royal Navy and the British Nation, but of the whole of the Allies when I say that your sailors, no less than your gallant troops, have won our deepest admiration."

The fact that the admiralty vessel which brought the party to the United States flew the Admiralty flag may have significance. Never before has this ensign been flown out of British home waters. It meant that a board of the Admiralty, vested with full power to make decisions for the Admiralty which need not be referred for confirmation, was on the ship.

Sir Eric lunched with President Wilson at the White House, and today conferences will begin on all matters involved in the joint effort of the Allies and the United States to crush German naval power.

The only incident of the trip across Sir Eric said, was also a good omen. About 24 hours out, a young American eagle alighted in the radio rig of the ship. Later it was brought down and the "British First Lord" of the Admiralty confirmed for himself the fact that he was being thus welcomed to American soil.

The gauze and tape used in their making can be obtained from Mrs. Tobey also. One of the Portsmouth doctors, one who sees on an average 100 grip patients a day, says that the fact that he has not contracted the disease is owed to the use of one of these masks.

DEMANDS ON DIET KITCHEN INCREASE

The work of the Red Cross diet kitchen continues to grow and the third day was the largest in point of service and, with every prospect of a still greater demand upon it in the coming days of this week.

The kitchen on Monday took care of some over fifty families, feeding over 250 people, the great per cent ill, or in the convalescent stages. The facilities of the kitchen on Monday were increased by the addition of a large electric stove set up by the Rockingham Light and Power Company, and the donation of several fireless cookers.

The great demand being made by the physicians for their patients include chicken, beef and lamb broth, orange juice, apples and jellies, and these are being supplied as fast as possible. Monday about seventy-five pounds of chicken was used, about as much beef and an equal amount of lamb, all made into broths. There are willing hands ever ready to do the work about the kitchen and others who devote considerable part of the day to taking the food around to the different patients.

The gifts of oranges are especially desired, as well as fresh eggs and chicken, so that those who feel inclined to contribute to this great cause, who are not able to give their time, should bear these three things in mind: oranges, eggs and chicken.

The kitchen is being conducted along very systematic routes, under the personal direction of Mrs. L. H. Thayer with Miss Dorothy Emerson in charge of the kitchen and there is the minimum of confusion about the work and especially about the distribution of the food which requires special knowledge of the cases and the needs of the patients.

Over in the Red Cross work room there is another busy party of women distributing material for the hospital garments and making in the finished articles and also the distribution of pneumonia jackets and masks. The two emergency hospitals are provided with all of the hospital garments, pneumonia jackets and masks from the Red Cross as well as the outside patients who desire them.

It is Red Cross service and when one sees the fine service and the remarkable manner in which things have been secured and the needs of the sick are met, they are given to wondering what would we have done if this had come at any other time, when there would not have been any organization, no material or trained workers. There is always some bright side.

WANT DRASTIC CHANGES MADE IN THE LOBSTER LAW

H. C. Wilbur, Dr. H. D. Crie and Dr. Gould, state fish and game commissioners, held the first public meeting of a series in the interest of the conservation of lobsters at Ogunquit on Monday.

Among those summoned to give testimony was Game Warden Waldo Ricker of Saco. He was called to relate results of investigations he recently made at different places along the coast.

It is the claim of the commissioners and game wardens that lobsters of any and all sizes are being impounded regardless of the legal length, and sent to other states where it is possible to sell lobsters smaller than is permitted in Maine.

Fish wardens relate that during one of their recent trips they found over 500 lobsters in one trap in this vicinity. It is estimated they were being held for shipment to other states.

It is contended that unless the law is changed it will be but a short time before lobsters will be almost extinct along the Maine coast.

Those old "church warden" pipes have long since gone, together with the wigs and knee breeches. But the tobacco of those early days—good old Virginia—is still the world's most popular tobacco, especially for cigarettes (see footnote).

No other spot on earth has Virginia's "just right" combination of golden sunshine and rich soil for growing cigarette tobacco. The result is, Virginia tobacco has an appetizing freshness—a "lively," "snappy" taste that makes ordinary cigarettes seem rather flat by contrast.

PRESIDENT WILL DEMAND UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 7.—President Wilson is conferring with the members of the Entente nations as to the form of the answer that will be made to the peace overtures of the German Imperial Chancellor, acting for Austria-Hungary as well as Germany, and it is expected that the answer will not be despatched for a day or two.

While there may be some question as to the form of the answer there is no question whatever as to the nature of it. It may not use the short and forceful term, "Unconditional surrender," which is the sentiment of the entire peoples as so far expressed, but it is sure to convey to Germany that nothing else than the fullest acceptance of the original terms laid down by the president will be accepted and they will not be made merely the means of negotiations.

As to an armistice, such a step would be suicidal and not to be thought of for a minute.

RED CROSS TO MOBILIZE FOR EPIDEMIC

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 7.—Mobilization of the entire forces of the Red Cross to fight the great epidemic has been ordered and instructions were sent out tonight to every chapter in the state. In co-operation with the Public Health Service and the Board of Health, they will offer the entire Red Cross service and its accumulation of hospital and medical supplies. A call will be made for nurses and also a call for women to go into the homes and manage the home for those who are ill or whose time must be taken in the care of the sick.

All reports indicate that the disease is spreading, but not in the army camps, where reports for the past twenty-four hours show a decrease. Camp Levens only had five new cases and five deaths on Monday.

There were twenty less deaths in Boston than in the previous twenty-four hours. The Boston board of health reported 146 from influenza and 24 from pneumonia. The entire state, 278 deaths and 6176 cases.

The disease is spreading in the state institutions and in the state prison where there are 630 inmates; there are 162 cases. Outdoor hospitals are being built by several cities and towns.

A Valuable Lesson.

The people of New England are already familiar with the official poster for the Liberty Loan in the New England states, and without doubt most of them have read of its origin. And in that simple story there is encouragement for all who may be inclined to attempt some accomplishment, but hesitate for fear that they may not succeed.

This poster, which is now in the public eye in all parts of New England, is not a thing of beauty, but it represents an idea and presents a strong appeal to the people. The rising sun represents the opening of the day, and beneath it appear the words, "Today buy that Liberty Bond."

This simple poster's road to recognition was a hard one. It was drawn by the little daughter of a Gloucester fisherman, a ninth grade pupil in the public schools. The school committee invited competition in drawing Liberty Loan posters and the little girl decided to try her hand. Her drawing was crude and did not even receive honorable mention when the work of the pupils was examined by the judges. But it was passed along with the others to the chairman of the New England Liberty Loan Committee, who discovered in it the right idea and adopted it as "the official New England poster and sign."

The incident teaches a valuable lesson, and this is that no person who feels prompted to attempt any worthy undertaking should hesitate to try his hand because of the fear of failure. There was no reason for this little school girl to believe that she could produce a poster that would attract attention, but she tried and she won, and the work of her youthful mind is now making its effective appeal in behalf of a most important and worthy cause.

There have been many similar experiences in connection with literary productions. In many cases works that have been thrown down hard by the editors when first offered have later won recognition and wide popularity, all of which teaches that those who are considered the best judges and the ablest critics are liable to err.

The fact that such things happen warrants those who are prompted to write, to paint or to attempt any work to be offered to the public in trying their hand. It is impossible to tell in advance whether the result will be success or failure, and sometimes, as in the case of this simple poster, the decision is not reached until some time after the offering has been made. This poster when examined by the school authorities did not receive honorable mention even, and is now the official poster of New England. Verily, "The stone that was rejected has become the head of the corner."

Remember the lesson. It is to try. And "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

As a means of promoting care in the construction of airplanes the men in charge of this work are hereafter to be required to make flights at least once a week with the machines they turn out. The government has concluded that it will be well for these workmen to understand that "The proof of the pudding is in the eating."

A number of officers and employees of a Tennessee manufacturing company which is making shells for the United States army have been arrested on the charge of purposely and wantonly producing defective shells. If the charge is sustained the punishment should be made to fit the crime, and it undoubtedly will be.

The Shipping Board wants to add the construction of 454 vessels to the program already mapped out and is calling upon Congress for a further appropriation of $484,000,000. This country is now wide awake to the importance of ship building, a fact that cannot fail to be of interest to such a community as this.

There should be no lack of automobiles to carry doctors and nurses about the city until the present emergency passes. Every person who can lend a hand in fighting the common foe at home should be as willing to do it as are the boys to struggle with the common foe on the battle fronts.

Frequent sales of real estate constitute one of the many evidences of prosperity in Portsmouth. Where there is a brisk demand for real estate it is safe to assume that a city is going forward, and in a town or city that is going forward there is always a lively demand for real estate.

Another hotel has been converted to the use of the navy yard workmen. It cannot be said that these men are not pretty well "holed."

U. S. BREWERS FOR GERMANY AND BEER

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Oct. 5.—Charges that the U. S. Brewers Association and individual members had secretly financed newspapers in the interests of the liquor traffic, had contributed to the national German-American alliance, have been convicted of corrupt political practices and had improperly influenced state and national legislation were received in a memorandum filed today by Senator Jones of Washington.

THE HERALD HEARS

That the new city messenger is not yet on the job.

That there should be no let up on the peach stone drive and other fruit pits.

That the health conditions at the army post, New Castle, shows what good work can be accomplished on the part of the medical force.

That the camphor bag is much in evidence these days and some people wear around their necks a small bag filled with both camphor and sulphur as a safeguard against the gripe.

That all the nurses and helpers in a large Massachusetts hospital have all been ordered to wear camphor bags as a gripe preventive.

That your contribution of cash, and cooked food, or articles needed in cookery, for the sick will be much appreciated for the Red Cross diet kitchen at the North Church chapel.

That Newburyport had 20 funerals in the past two days.

That some of the prisoners at the county farm have been temporarily released to help in grave digging in several places.

That the Huns' howl for peace should be passed up.

That the superior court opens in this city a week from today.

That no card has been received from the man who dropped the 12 quarts in the depot on Saturday.

That if he kept up the speed he had on Jackson street he certainly must have covered some ground.

That the new shooting gallery opened on Daniel street has been ordered closed by the health authorities during the epidemic.

That the stolen car of Ralph Hett, found in Andover, had the brake jammed by thieves.

That they failed to get it released and could go no further.

That one tire and an overcoat were stolen from the machine?

That the first girls to be employed at the shipyard are now at work at the Shattuck plant.

That they are engaged in making oakum ready for the caulkers.

That the telephone directory without the list of Dover subscribers is a handicap to the Portsmouth subscribers and the company as well.

That nobody has yet witnessed the unloading of a cargo of fish at the former Portsmouth Brewing Company dock.

That the second big turbine engine at the Rockingham County Light and Power plant is nearly ready to be connected up for service.

PLENTY TO EAT IN IRELAND

London, Oct. 7.—Although only a three-hour boat trip separates England and Ireland there is as much difference as between day and night in the two islands as far as food is concerned.

For the person who has lived in England for a time and whose habits have led him believe his system needs more than the number of food calories science prescribes, Ireland is a wonderful place to dine in.

It does not follow that sufficient food is not available in England—there is sufficient to healthily maintain the system but there is a difference between that and eating steak properly decorated. That can be accomplished in Ireland at reasonable cost but not in England at any price.

Ireland is not rationed voluntarily or otherwise, and there is plenty of everything with the exception of sugar, in spite to food it is more pleasantly situated than the United States or England because prices have not advanced as they have in America and are no higher than in England where the ministry of food not only ration but controls prices. Ireland always has some quantities of meat and dairy products to England and still is doing so.

Americans who have been in England and tried to become accustomed to the four ounces of meat at a meal, and an absence of fat in cooking wherever possible, on arriving in Ireland fairly gorge themselves for a few days on meat, drink quantities of milk and do not spare the butter. They had not been getting milk at all except with a physician's prescription and butter was limited to less than an ounce a day.

GERMANS LEAVING BELGIAN COAST

Amsterdam, Oct. 8.—The evacuation by the Germans of the Belgian coast region is continuing, the French correspondent of the Telegraph reports. The telephone lines between the frontier and the coast were being taken down yesterday and today. The stores of material at Knokke, near the coast, five miles from the Dutch frontier, have been set on fire. The report states that many factories have been undamaged in preparation for their quick destruction.

COMMISSIONED SECOND LIEUTENANT

William S. Howe of Exeter who enlisted in the Coast Artillery Company has recently received a commission as second lieutenant. After his enlistment he was assigned duty at Fort Construction, New Castle, and was there until he entered the officers' training school in the south and received his commission in that branch of the service. He has been assigned to duty at Camp Peary, N. C. Before taking up his new duties he has had a leave of absence and is visiting his brother, County Treasurer Stewart E. Howe of Exeter.

Many Portsmouth women are doing their utmost to give service in this time of need when our city is hard hit by the grip epidemic. Among the young women who have shown a splendid spirit in this emergency is Miss Maud Trefethen, a popular and efficient clerk in the D. P. Northwick dry goods store. Miss Trefethen had worked all Sunday at the emergency hospital, but upon hearing about a sad case on North School street, where a family of eight had been ill and two at that having pneumonia and with no nurse available for the night, Miss Trefethen offered to go to their aid. The parents, who had been ill, were exhausted from the care and a child in the family was then dying. Miss Trefethen had taken the Nurses' first aid course, but was not experienced in serious cases, yet, knowing the probable outcome of the case she sat up all night and watched by the dying child's bedside, the little life going out at 3.15 a. m. on Monday. Such acts of mercy show a splendid Christian spirit and that one has the fine womanly characteristics at a time when most needed.

TO SELL HORSE FLESH

Calgary, Alberta, Oct. 7.—A movement to permit the sale of horse meat in butcher shops throughout Canada has received the endorsement of all leading live stock organizations in this section of Canada and soon will be formally placed before the Dominion government in the form of a recommendation, according to the Alberta Horse, Cattle, Sheep and Swine Breeders' Association.

Horse meat sold under the same regulations as obtain in various European countries would result in a great economic saving, the Association says, adding that "thousands of light horses that have ceased to be of economic value consume large quantities of feed annually."

Figures dealing with the sale of horse meat in Europe were made public. They showed that one-sixth of the 600,000 families in Paris eat horse flesh, and that Germany as far back as 1903, used 79,000,000 pounds of horse meat annually. In 1903 Germany also consumed 6,390 dogs, the figures showed.

Ice Boxes on Wheels

Refrigerator cars for carrying meat are ice boxes traveling on wheels.

Most people in America would have to go without fresh meat, or would have to pay more for what they could get, if it were not for these traveling ice boxes.

Gustavus F. Swift, the first Swift in the packing industry, saw the need of these traveling ice boxes before others.

He asked the railroads to build them. The railroads refused. They were equipped, and preferred to haul cattle rather than dressed beef.

So Gustavus F. Swift had to make the cars himself. The first one was a box car rigged up to hold ice. Now there are 7,000 Swift refrigerator cars. Each one is as fine an ice box as you have in your home.

Day and night, fair weather and foul, through heat and cold, these 7,000 cars go rolling up and down the country, keeping meat just right on its way to you.

Thus another phase of Swift & Company's activities has grown to meet a need no one else could or would supply, in a way that matched Swift & Company ideas of being useful.

When you see one of these Swift & Company cars in a train, or on a siding, you will be reminded of what is being done for you as the fruit of experience and a desire to serve.

SODA FOUNTAINS AND SALOONS CLOSED

Board of Health Issues Orders on Monday--No Danger of Infection in Laundry Clothes--New Ward Opened at Emergency Hospital

The Public Health Service on Monday afternoon took still another measure to suppress the spread of the Spanish influenza when they ordered all of the soda fountains and all near-by saloons closed until further orders.

This action was taken after a conference of the Board of Health at City Hall. In all probability the order will remain in effect until the last of the week and in that time the soda fountains and saloons will be asked to provide paper cups for individual service.

There was a conference of the proprietors of the saloons of this city with the Public Health Service and Chairman H. C. Taylor of the Red Cross. It appeared that some of the laundries had refused to take laundry from houses where there has been influenza and from the two contagious hospitals. Dr. Preble made it very clear that there was no reason for this at all. The germ is not carried on the clothing and there is no danger whatever to the laundry people who handle the clothing, providing they use the little precautions that they would ordinarily observe at this time. The proprietors of the New Method Laundry were prompt to volunteer their services to the hospitals when Dr. Preble and Col. Taylor explained the great need of laundry to save buying new materials such as sheets, etc. They said they would take the work at once and give it their immediate attention, and would trust to the patriotic nature of their regular customers to put up with the day or more delay that would be caused. They acted in a very public spirit, in manner and were highly commended by those interested.

Dr. Preble stated that he wanted the public to understand that there was no danger from infection from a laundry, because clothes that come out of a steam laundry where they go through the live steam are sterilized.

The Public Health Service have received a pamphlet from the United States Public Health Service entitled "Spanish Influenza," "The Three Day Fever," which is a very comprehensive description of the disease and the treatment and precautions that are to be taken to guard against it. These will be distributed to the general public by the Boy Scouts, who are asked to report at the Public Health office this forenoon for this service.

The demand for admission to the Elks' Emergency hospital on Monday was on the increase and another ward of eight beds was opened up. This makes nearly fifty beds and the nursing situation by day at least has considerably improved, but there is room for volunteer workers at night.

If there is any further increase the lodge room at the Elks' Home on the third floor will be opened up and this will give a capacity of possibly fifty more beds, which it is hoped will not be reached. Some of the patients are making rapid recovery at the hospital and there will be some discharges soon.

A Red Cross nurse who is not engaged at the Emergency hospital, is making trips about the city visiting at many cases as possible in conjunction with the District Nurse, Miss Hatch. Here, by the way, is a chance for some public spirited citizen to donate a car for Miss Hatch's use. She traveled with a carriage, which is of course slow, and a car would greatly increase her number of calls.

The great benefit of the diet kitchen is becoming more and more apparent, and the food sent out from this Red Cross station is doing a great good for the sick.

NO DOCTORS TO EXAMINE CANDIDATES FOR NAVY

Toward the Boston quota for October of 417 special tradesmen for the Navy, about 450 have had their names taken since the induction bars were lowered a week ago.

But with two staff surgeons of the Cornhill station down with grippe, and the others enrolling the college navy unit through New England, examination of these 450 candidates cannot proceed.

And no more applicants are desired until those at present in the process of induction can be disposed of.

The Bureau of Navigation requires candidates for ground and flight officers in Naval Aviation. The ground officer candidates may be from 30 to 40 years old, the flight officers from 19 to 33.

Ground officers must furnish proof of marked executive ability and of business experience.

Flight officers must have completed high school, and additionally the equivalent of two years' study in some recognized scientific school, embracing the knowledge of physics, elementary electricity and plain trigonometry.

Capt. B. J. Doherty, chief of the Marine Corps Recruiting Station in Scotland square, said yesterday that the Marine Corps unit of the S. A. T. C. of 120 men at Harvard would probably be complete by the end of this week. Among those enrolled is the son of Howard Elliott.

Fold ends together making it 6x8 in. Sew around the four sides and one way through the center of mask, leaving a hole that the sewing goes through the eight layers of gauze. Place a black thread in center of one side of the mask to indicate the outer side of same. Sew a loop 12 inches long to each of the four corners, so that the mask may be tied lengthwise across the mouth and nose.

TOBACCO CONCERNS INDICTED

New York, Oct. 8.—The Federal Grand Jury indicted Monday, under the Sherman Antitrust law and under the Wilson Tariff law, the Sumatra Purchasing Corporation, four other tobacco companies and 11 individuals. They are accused of having combined to restrain the Sumatra tobacco leaf trade and thereby to have obtained control of 90 percent of the trade in this country.

The four other corporate defendants are Duns & Co., Inc., the American Cigar Company, the General Cigar Company, Inc., and the Sumatra Tobacco Import Corporation.

The indictments accuse the American Cigar Company, the General Cigar Company, Duns & Co. and the individuals associated with them of forming the Sumatra Tobacco Import Company in 1910 and the Sumatra Purchasing Corporation in 1917 to carry out their alleged monopoly.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly "clogged" with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Tasted, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

"Millions of mothers give 'California Syrup of Figs' because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a bottle of 'California Syrup of Figs' which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by 'California Fig Syrup Company.' Refuse any other kind with contempt."

BILLY SUNDAY'S WEEK-DAY MEETINGS CALLED OFF.

Providence, Oct. 8.—With an apparent increase in the influenza epidemic in the city the week-day meetings of the Rev. Billy Sunday's revival were called off Monday for the remaining four weeks of his campaign. The Superior Court suspended its sessions for a week.

In the last 48 hours 5249 cases and 48 deaths were reported.

Hon. Nathan W. Littlefield, Edward Shaw 2d, Rev. Edward Simpson of the Rhode Island Anti-Saloon League and Thomas W. Waterman called upon the Mayor and formally requested that drinking places be closed.

DYE QUESTION SECURE.

Everybody remembers what a nervous there was in relation to dye-stuffs soon after the war began. We had been accustomed to rely almost wholly upon Germany for those indispensable. Also for synthetic dyes. Owners of our textile mills feared that they would be obliged to shut down their plants. Prices of dyestuffs soared skyhigh. Substitutes were, so to speak, extemporized, but were so poor that dry goods dealers posted placards declaring that they could not guarantee their fabrics not to fade. Black stockings turned dirty black after being washed once or twice.

The situation was indeed alarming, for many other industries besides the manufacturers of textiles require dyestuffs. How, for instance, were painters, lithographers and wall paper-makers to get along?

But, as if by a miracle, the problem has already been solved. Our most highly skilled chemists went to work on it, and today we are producing our own dyestuffs equal in quality to those "made in Germany."

MALAMPANES, ALLEGED MURDERER, HAS GRIPPE.

Dover, Oct. 8.—James Malampanes, whose trial for the murder of Bill Chalmers resulted in a mistrial Saturday, when five jurors were stricken with influenza, was Monday suffering from the same disease at the County Jail.

Chief Justice Rives has decided not to hold any more jury trials here until the epidemic has passed.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert, vigorous, and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman, and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change could take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pale or muddy complexions, instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and pessimists, we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-checked people everywhere.

An inside bath is made by drinking each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation.

POLICE BOARD HAS A QUIET MEETING

Grant Leave of Six Months to Capt. Burke.

Police Commissioners Wallace and Griffin conducted the business of the board on Monday night. Captain Thomas J. Burke requested a six months leave of absence which was granted. The board notified the health authorities that the police department was ready at all times to cooperate with them in fighting the influenza epidemic and would render any service possible in the same.

Several minor matters were up for discussion, but no action was taken.

GOING TO CALIFORNIA.

Capt. Thomas J. Burke who has been granted a leave of absence for six months by the police board, will pass the same at Bakersfield, California and will leave this city for the west coast about November 1.

WANTS NAVY DEPARTMENT TO SUPPLY THE COAL

Constructor Adams Says Government Must Help Out Workmen.

Naval Constructor L. H. Adams, Industrial Manager of the navy yard is trying to relieve a situation here which means much to the government as well as the people in Portsmouth. He has taken up the matter of supply of coal for the winter for navy yard workmen. He has communicated with the Navy Department at Washington and made it plain that there is liable to be other trouble besides. The housing situation unless the necessary coal is provided for government workmen. He requests the department to furnish coal to the employees in case it cannot be obtained from the regular local dealers.

He claims that the work at the navy yard will be greatly retarded in case the workmen fail to get coal and pass it clearly up to the government.

The matter is still in the hands of the department heads and the constructor is anxiously awaiting its decision.

LOCAL FIELD DEPUTY DEAD

John J. Donovan, a prominent citizen of Keene, and Field Deputy of the Internal Revenue, and well known throughout the state, died this morning at his home of pneumonia, aged 41 years.

Mr. Donovan had been a member of the city council, alderman two years representative to the state legislature two terms, served as overseer of poor for six years and was at the time of his death a member of the Democratic state committee. He had been a collector at the internal revenue's office in Boston most of the time during the past three years, about three months ago he was transferred and was investigator for the United States department on the income tax. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus. He was a graduate of the Keene high school, class of 1897, and was prominent in athletics. He was manager of the Twin-State league baseball team one season. He had an attack of pneumonia 10 years ago which left him in rather poor health. He leaves a brother, Cornelius Donovan of Keene.

ENGINE GOES BAD TRAINS DELAYED

Side Rod Breaks Just Outside City; Passengers Get Away at 10 O'Clock.

Regardless of the high cost of transportation passengers on the Concord train leaving this city at 5:33 on Monday afternoon got plenty of riding for their money and those who had through tickets to Concord, arrived home some time early Tuesday morning.

The passengers on the Portsmouth train were also delayed and reached this city about 2 o'clock. The trouble was all caused by the breaking of a side rod on the locomotive of the train leaving for Concord at 5:33 which stalled this train about two miles outside of the city near the overhead bridge on Greenland road.

It became necessary to strip the locomotive of some of the running gear before it could be moved. Finally the train was hauled back to the depot to let the Portsmouth train come along to its destination.

With another locomotive the Concord train got away at 10 o'clock.

CONDITIONS DUE MOSTLY TO LACK OF HELP AND SICKNESS

A local railroad man this morning in speaking of the matter of clean cars for workmen for the navy yard and ship yards puts most of the blame where it belongs. He said that the conditions were mostly due to the failure to get the necessary car cleaners and the present epidemic has made things worse. Under the circumstances the workmen could help themselves to a great extent by getting plenty of fresh air through the open windows and doing their part to keep the cars clean while riding in the same.

PORTSMOUTH GIRL VOLUNTEERS

Yesterday Miss Rowell of the office of the public health service received a letter from a high school girl of Concord, who upon seeing in the Portsmouth Herald the need of emergency workers to fight the epidemic in this city, volunteered her services. The letter was given to Dr. Treble in charge of the office and will be kept on file and should the need arise the young woman may be sent for later. Her letter in offering to come to this city to give her services was much appreciated.
